

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

VS.

CARLOS SANCHEZ,

Defendant.

ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion for an extension of time by defendant Carlos Sanchez (Sanchez) (Filing No. 11). Sanchez seeks an additional three weeks in which to file pretrial motions in accordance with the progression order (Filing No. 6). Sanchez has filed an affidavit wherein he consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 12). Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Defendant Sanchez's motion for an extension of time (Filing No. 11) is granted. Defendant Sanchez is given until on or before September 15, 2005, in which to file pretrial motions pursuant to the progression order. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between August 23, 2005 and September 15, 2005, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case, taking into consideration due diligence of counsel, and the novelty and complexity of this case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A) & (B).

2. The evidentiary hearing tentatively scheduled for 9:00 a.m. on September 1, 2005, is canceled and will be rescheduled, if necessary, following the filing of any pretrial motions in accordance with this order.

DATED this 23rd day of August, 2005.
